

About The Program Director

Ryan A. Jones, M.S.

Ryan Jones has developed and directed many multi-level School Age Child Care programs for various organizations. He is a certified YMCA / USA program director and holds current CPR and First Aid certification. He has held the responsibility of complying with the licensing of child care programs for NY State Department of Children & Family Services. Ryan has also held the position of Children's Pastor with the Assemblies of God in facilitating various children's crusades, seminars and trainings. Over the years, he has volunteered his services with youth in New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Missouri, California and in the countries of Mexico and El Salvador.

Ryan holds an Associates degree in Early Childhood Education, Bachelors degree in Management and a Masters degree in Organizational Leadership. Currently, he is working on a Masters degree in Marriage & Family Therapy and is a member of the "American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy" (AAMFT). Ryan's focus is on therapy with child & adolescent youth within the family dynamics. At a Poughkeepsie counseling center, Ryan serves as a Marriage & Family Therapist Intern Counselor.

His current responsibilities here at Faith Assembly involve the directorship of School Age Child Care programs. Ryan also serves as a committee member in representing the "Faith Based Community" for the Children's Services Council of Dutchess County and a member of the Board of Directors for Taconic Resources, advocating / supporting the rights, services and wellbeing of children and youth.
